

Verbs are the action in a sentence!

VERBS

Verbs are doing, being or having words.

DOING

(Action Verbs)

Action verbs tell what someone or something is doing.

run jump swim bake kick draw write dance play

BEING

(Linking Verbs)

Linking verbs connect the subject to more information about it.

am is are was were be been being seem look feel sound taste

HAVING

(Helping Verbs)

Helping verbs help other verbs to show tense or meaning.

have has had do does did will would shall can could may might should must

EXAMPLES

- The boy kicked the ball.
- She is very kind.
- They have a new puppy.
- We will go to the park.

TIPS

- ✓ Look for the action word.
- ✓ Ask: What is the subject doing?
- ✓ Verbs can change tense (past, present, future).

REMEMBER!

Every sentence needs a verb.

It's the heartbeat of your writing!

DOING

Something is happening!

DOING VERBS

Doing verbs are action words.

They tell us what someone or something is doing.

EXAMPLES

MOVE

- run
- walk
- jump
- skip
- hop
- climb
- crawl
- swim
- dance
- slide
- chase
- kick
- throw
- catch
- ride

CREATE

- draw
- paint
- write
- color
- build
- make
- design
- create
- craft
- cut
- glue
- shape
- sketch
- doodle
- imagine

THINK

- think
- know
- remember
- forget
- understand
- learn
- decide
- guess
- notice
- realize
- imagine
- believe
- plan
- figure out
- solve

HELP

- help
- assist
- support
- care for
- share
- give
- lend
- teach
- guide
- comfort
- encourage
- offer
- serve
- volunteer
- donate

OTHER ACTIONS

- eat
- drink
- sleep
- wash
- clean
- cook
- open
- close
- push
- pull
- dig
- plant
- mow
- honk
- smile

Doing verbs make your writing more exciting!

SEE THE DIFFERENCE!

The boy went to the park.

boring! 😞

The boy ran laughed and climbed at the park.

better! 😊

TIP:

Use lots of doing verbs to make your sentences strong and interesting!

Name: _____

Date: _____

DOING VERBS

Doing verbs are action words.

1 Write the doing verb for each picture.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

2 Circle the doing verbs in each sentence.

1. Sam plays soccer after school.
2. We are listening to music.
3. The bird is flying in the sky.
4. I like to draw pictures.
5. Dad is cooking dinner.

3 Match the sentence to the doing verb.

- | | | |
|------------------------|---|--------|
| 1 The girl is jumping. | • | • bark |
| 2 The boy is reading. | • | • cook |
| 3 The dog is barking. | • | • read |
| 4 The chef is cooking. | • | • jump |

4 Write a sentence about what is happening in the picture.

Challenge: Can you think of 3 more doing verbs? Write them below.

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

A being verb doesn't show action.
It shows a state of being!

BEING VERBS

Being verbs show a state of being.

They tell us who or what someone or something is, or how they feel.

EXAMPLES

IDENTITY (who or what someone is)

am is are was were be been being

DESCRIPTION (what someone or something is like) kind smart brave happy tall short strong friendly loud quiet

FEELINGS (how someone feels)

am is are was were be been being glad sad excited angry proud afraid tired

POSITION (where someone or something is)

am is are was were be been being here there inside outside upstairs downstairs ahead

TIME (when something happens)

am is are was were be been being now then today yesterday tomorrow soon later

SENTENCE EXAMPLES

- I am happy.
- She is my sister.
- They are at the park.
- We were excited.
- He is tall.
- The cake is delicious.

TIP!

Being verbs can help connect ideas and describe people, places, things
and feelings.

COMMON BEING VERBS

am	seem	stay
is	appear	grow
are	look	become was	feel	turn were	taste	prove be	smell	exist
been	sound	matter
being	remain	belong

Being verbs help us describe and connect.
They are an important part of every sentence!

Name: _____

Date: _____

BEING VERBS

am is are was were

BEING VERBS

Being verbs help show a state of being.

I am happy.

1 Choose the correct being verb to complete each sentence.

1. I (am / is / are) excited about the trip.
2. She (am / is / are) my best friend.
3. They (am / is / are) playing in the park.
4. He (am / is / are) a great soccer player.
5. We (am / is / are) ready for the test.

2 Fill in the blank with the correct being verb.

am

is

are

was

were

1. I _____ happy today.
2. My dog _____ very friendly.
3. The flowers _____ beautiful.
4. Yesterday, she _____ at the movies.
5. They _____ at the birthday party.

BEING VERBS

tell us who someone is or how they feel.

3 Underline the being verb in each sentence.

1. The baby is sleeping.
2. You are very kind.
3. I was at the zoo yesterday.
4. We are learning new things.
5. He is my neighbour.

z z z

4 Write a sentence about each picture using a being verb.

5 Draw a picture of yourself doing something you enjoy.
Then write a sentence using a being verb to match your picture.

TIP:

Being verbs help make your sentences clear and interesting!

Challenge: Write one sentence using each of these being verbs.

am: _____ is: _____ are: _____ was: _____ were: _____

Having verbs show possession or ownership.

HAVING VERBS

Having verbs tell us that someone has something or that something belongs to someone.

EXAMPLES

OWNERSHIP

(belonging to someone)

- have
- own
- possess
- hold
- keep
- retain
- belong
- contain
- include

POSSESSION

(having something)

- have
- carry
- possess
- hold
- bear
- sport
- feature
- present
- contain

QUALITIES

(having a quality or characteristic)

- have
- show
- display
- exhibit
- possess
- demonstrate
- reveal
- express
- reflect

RELATIONSHIPS

(having a connection)

- have
- share
- enjoy
- experience
- maintain
- sustain
- involve
- include
- relate

ATTRIBUTES

(having a feature or attribute)

- have
- wear
- feature
- include
- consist
- comprise
- involve
- contain
- display

SENTENCE EXAMPLES

- I have a new bike.
- She owns a red car.
- They possess a lot of knowledge.
- We have a big garden.
- He holds the record.
- The book includes many stories.
- You share a strong bond with your sister.
- The paint contains lead.
- The team has great spirit.

TIPS!

- Having verbs are often followed by a noun or pronoun.
- They help us show possession, qualities, relationships and attributes.

COMMON HAVING VERBS

- | | |
|-----------|------------|
| • have | • feature |
| • own | • share |
| • possess | • enjoy |
| • hold | • involve |
| • keep | • maintain |
| • contain | • wear |
| • include | • bear |
| • show | • reflect |
| • display | • express |

Having verbs help us explain what someone has, who something belongs to, and the connections we have!

Name: _____

Date: _____

HAVING

Something belongs to someone.

HAVING VERBS

I have a new book.

Having verbs show that someone owns or possesses something.

1 Circle the having verb in each sentence.

1. I have a red bike.
2. She has a big smile.
3. They have three dogs.
4. We had a great time.
5. He has a new jacket.

2 Fill in the blank with the correct having verb.

have has

have had

have

1. I _____ two brothers.
2. She _____ a beautiful dress.
3. They _____ a big garden.
4. We _____ ice cream for dessert.
5. He _____ a cool skateboard.

HAVING VERBS tell us what someone owns or possesses.

3 Match each sentence to the correct picture.

1 She has a cat.

2 They have a tree house.

3 He has a guitar.

4 Read the sentence. Then draw a picture to show what it has.

We have a picnic.

5 Write a sentence using the having verb in brackets. Draw a picture to match.

1. (have) _____

2. (has) _____

TIP:

Look for words like have, has, had, or have to find having verbs!

Challenge: Write one more sentence using a having verb.
