

INFORMATION REPORT NOTE TAKING

Use this template to gather and organise information about your topic.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Topic: _____

PROMPT

You are going to write an information report about your chosen topic.

Use reliable sources (books, websites, videos, articles, experts) to research your topic.

Take notes in your own words. Record facts, details and examples.

GOOD NOTE TAKING TIPS

- ✓ Use your own words.
- ✓ Write key ideas, not whole sentences.
- ✓ Include facts, figures and examples.
- ✓ Note the source of your information.
- ✓ Keep your notes organised.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

What is your topic about?
Give a brief overview.

2. DESCRIPTION & DETAILS

What are the main features or characteristics?

3. CAUSES & REASONS

Why does this happen?
What causes it?

4. FACTS & FIGURES

Record important facts, statistics or data.

Fact / Statistic	Details	Source

5. EXAMPLES

Provide examples that help explain your topic.

- _____
- _____
- _____

6. EFFECTS / IMPACT

What are the results or effects?
How does it impact people, places or the environment?

SOURCES

List the sources you used.

Source (Title / Author / Website)

Type (Book / Website / Video / Other)

Date Accessed

- | | | | |
|----|-------|-------|-------|
| 1. | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 2. | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 3. | _____ | _____ | _____ |
| 4. | _____ | _____ | _____ |

INFORMATION REPORT PLANNING TEMPLATE

Plan your report before you write.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Topic: _____

PROMPT

Choose one of the topics below or your own topic.

- The Great Barrier Reef
- Volcanoes
- The Honeybee
- Renewable Energy (e.g., solar or wind power)
- Your Own Topic: _____

Plan your information report using notes and key ideas.
Use this plan to help you write a clear and organised report.

REMEMBER

- Be clear and factual.
- Use headings and subheadings.
- Include facts, details and examples.
- Use your own words.
- Check your spelling, punctuation and grammar.

1. TITLE (What is your report called?)

2. GENERAL STATEMENT (Introduce your topic)

What is your topic? _____

What is it? _____

Give a brief overview. _____

3. SUBTOPICS (What will your report be about?)

List the main subtopics or sections you will write about.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

4. NOTES & KEY INFORMATION (Plan your content)

Use this space to record important facts, details and examples for each subtopic.

Subtopic / Section	Key Facts	Details & Examples	Source

5. CONCLUSION (Summarise your report)

What are the most important points?
Summarise your report in 2–3 sentences.

SENTENCE STARTERS

General Statement

- This report is about...
- ... is an important ...
- It is found in ...

Description & Details

- One key feature is ...
- For example, ...
- Another important point is ...

Cause & Effect

- This happens because ...
- As a result, ...
- This leads to ...

Conclusion

- In conclusion, ...
- To sum up, ...
- Overall, ...

SOURCES

List the sources you plan to use.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

CHECKLIST

- ☐ I have a clear title.
- ☐ I have introduced my topic.
- ☐ I have included facts, details and examples.
- ☐ I have organised my report with headings.
- ☐ I will write in full sentences.
- ☐ I will check my spelling, punctuation and grammar.

★ READY TO WRITE? Use your plan to write your information report in full.

INFORMATION REPORT WRITING PRACTICE

Write a clear and factual report to inform your reader about a topic.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Topic: _____

WRITING PROMPT

Choose one of the topics below or your own topic.

- The Great Barrier Reef
- Volcanoes
- The Honeybee
- Renewable Energy (e.g., solar or wind power)
- Your Own Topic: _____

Write an information report to inform your audience about your chosen topic.
Make sure to include facts, details and clear structure.

WHAT IS AN INFORMATION REPORT?

An information report gives facts about a general topic. It is written in a clear, formal style and is organised into sections.

1. TITLE

Write a title that tells the reader what your report is about.

2. GENERAL STATEMENT

Introduce your topic. What is it? Give a brief overview.

3. DESCRIPTION & DETAILS

Provide facts, details and examples about your topic.

4. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Include more interesting facts or important information.

5. CONCLUSION

Summarise your main points.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

- ✓ Presents facts and information about the topic
- ✓ Organised with clear structure and headings
- ✓ Written in full sentences
- ✓ Uses factual language
- ✓ Includes details and examples
- ✓ Correct spelling, punctuation and grammar

FACT CHECK

Use reliable sources to find your facts.

List your sources here:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

EDIT & IMPROVE CHECKLIST

- ☐ I used factual and accurate information.
- ☐ I organised my report with clear headings.
- ☐ I wrote in full sentences.
- ☐ I used topic-specific vocabulary.
- ☐ I checked my spelling, punctuation and grammar.
- ☐ I read my report to make sure it flows and makes sense.

★ REMEMBER: Be clear. Be factual. Be organised. Your job is to INFORM your reader!

NARRATIVE NOTE TAKING TEMPLATE

Use this template to plan and note down ideas for your story.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Title of your story: _____

WRITING PROMPT

Choose one of the prompts below or use your own idea.

- Write about a time you got into an unexpected adventure.
- Write a story about a mysterious object you found.
- Write about a day that changed everything.
- Your own idea: _____

GOOD NOTE TAKING TIPS

- ✓ Jot down key ideas, not whole sentences.
- ✓ Use your own words and short phrases.
- ✓ Add details about who, where, when, what happened and how it felt.
- ✓ Draw quick sketches or use symbols.
- ✓ Keep your notes organised.

1. SETTING

Where and when does your story take place?
Describe the place and time.

Place:

Time:

2. CHARACTERS

Who is in your story? What are they like?
List main characters and key details.

Character's Name	Role (e.g. main character, friend, family, other)	Personality / Description

3. PROBLEM / CHALLENGE

What is the main problem or challenge in your story?
What goes wrong?

4. IMPORTANT EVENTS

List the key events in order.

1
2
3
4
5
6

5. SOLUTION / RESOLUTION

How is the problem solved?
What happens next?

6. ENDING

How does your story end?
What is the final outcome or feeling?

NOTES & IDEAS

Other ideas, words, quotes, or anything you don't want to forget.

QUICK SKETCH SPACE

Draw a scene, character, object or important moment from your story.

REMEMBER: Your notes are the foundation of your story. Use them to write a clear, exciting and well-structured narrative!

NARRATIVE WRITING PRACTICE

Write a well-structured story that entertains your reader.

Name: _____ Date: _____ Title of your story: _____

WRITING PROMPT

Choose one of the prompts below or use your own idea.

- Write about a time you got into an unexpected adventure.
- Write a story about a mysterious object you found.
- Write about a day that changed everything.
- Your own idea: _____

NARRATIVE REMEMBER

A good narrative has:

- Interesting characters
- A clear setting
- A problem or challenge
- Events in time order
- A solution and ending
- Vivid language and detail

1. ORIENTATION

Introduce your story.
Who, what, where and when?

2. COMPLICATION

What is the problem or challenge?
What goes wrong?

3. SERIES OF EVENTS

What happens next? Write the important events
in order.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

4. RESOLUTION

How is the problem solved? What happens next?

5. ENDING

How does your story end? What is the final outcome or feeling?

USEFUL LANGUAGE

To show time:

- First, ... • Next, ... • Then, ...
- After that, ... • Finally, ...

To add detail:

- For example, ... • Such as, ...
- In particular, ...

To show feeling:

- I felt ... • I was ...
- It was the best/worst ...

To describe:

- The ... was ...
- I could see/hear/smell ...

CHECKLIST

- ☐ I have followed the structure.
- ☐ My story has a clear beginning, middle and end.
- ☐ I used descriptive words and details.
- ☐ I wrote in paragraphs.
- ☐ I checked my spelling, punctuation and grammar.
- ☐ I read my story to make sure it makes sense.

EDIT & IMPROVE

One thing I did well: _____

One thing I can improve: _____

I could make it stronger by: _____

WORD BANK (Use these to add detail and make your story vivid!)

Characters

brave, curious, kind, nervous, excited,
determined, clever

Settings

forest, beach, city, mountain, village,
castle, school, space

Feelings

happy, worried, scared, surprised,
relieved, proud

Actions

ran, whispered, discovered, climbed,
searched, shouted

Describing Words

dark, bright, huge,
tiny, old, shiny,
noisy, peaceful

MY OWN WORDS

REMEMBER: Plan – Write – Check – Improve. Enjoy writing your story!

