

THE ART OF WRITING INFORMATION REPORTS

Informative Writing Structure

How to organise a clear information text

1

1. Title

Choose a heading that tells the reader what the text is about.

What is your topic?

2

2. Introduction

Introduce the topic and give the reader an overview.

What will this text explain?

3

3. Body Paragraphs

Write paragraphs with facts and information about different ideas.

What are the main facts?

4

4. Topic Sentences & Details

Start each paragraph with a topic sentence, then add facts, examples, and explanations.

Can you support your ideas with details?

5

5. Conclusion

Finish by summing up the information and reminding the reader of the main idea.

How will you wrap it up?

Informative Writing Tips

- ♥ Use factual language
- ♥ Organise ideas clearly
- ♥ Use topic-specific vocabulary
- ♥ Include headings if needed
- ♥ Use linking words
- ♥ Check spelling and punctuation

WRITE TO INFORM. HELP OTHERS UNDERSTAND.

WRITING INFORMATIVE TEXTS

Informative texts give readers facts and clear explanations about a topic. Good informative writing can educate, warn, and even save lives.

FOLLOW THESE STEPS

1

CHOOSE A TOPIC

Pick a natural disaster that interests you.

Examples:

- Hurricanes
- Earthquakes
- Floods
- Wildfires
- Tsunamis

2

RESEARCH & GATHER FACTS

Find reliable information from books, websites, articles, and experts.

Look for:

- Causes
- Effects
- Locations
- Safety tips
- Important statistics

3

ORGANIZE YOUR IDEAS

Create an outline to plan your text.

A helpful structure is:

Introduction

Introduce the topic and why it matters.

Body

Share facts and explanations in an organized way.

Conclusion

Summarize the key points.

4

WRITE CLEARLY

Use clear and concise language.

Write in complete sentences.

Use:

- Facts, not opinions
- Precise vocabulary
- Headlines and subheadings
- Charts, captions, and images to support facts

5

REVISE & EDIT

Make your writing the best it can be!

Check for:

- Accuracy
- Clarity
- Organization
- Grammar and spelling

NATURAL DISASTERS CAN...

THREATEN LIVES

They can cause injury, loss of life, and damage to communities.

DAMAGE PROPERTY

Homes, schools, roads, and infrastructure can be destroyed.

IMPACT THE ENVIRONMENT

Ecosystems can be changed for years—or even forever.

AFFECT COMMUNITIES

Disasters can disrupt daily life and the economy.

WHY IT MATTERS

Informative writing teaches others and spreads awareness.

It helps people prepare, make safe choices, and respond quickly.

Your words can build empathy and inspire people to help.

Accurate information saves lives.

BE A RESPONSIBLE WRITER

- ✓ Research deeply.
- ✓ Write honestly.
- ✓ Credit your sources.
- ✓ Use your words to make a difference.

BE INFORMED. WRITE INFORMATIVE TEXTS.
