LEARNING INTENTION

I can identify, build and use complex sentences to add more detail and show deeper meaning.

1 SPOT THE COMPLEX SENTENCE

Read each sentence. Colour the rockets next to the complex sentences.

The stars shone brightly in the sky.

Although it was raining, we went for a walk.

I packed my bag and left for school.

Because she studied hard, she passed the test.

The astronaut floated in space.

A complex sentence has one main clause and one or more subordinate clause.

3 BUILD YOUR OWN

Combine the main clause and the subordinate clause using a suitable word or phrase from the box.

although because while if when

1 The explorers kept going / the path was steep.

2 We watched the meteor shower / it was late.

3 She wore a helmet / she rode her bike.

4 I will help you / you ask me.

2 MATCH THE PARTS

Match the main clause to the correct subordinate clause to make a complex sentence.

MAIN CLAUSE

1 We set up the tent

2 I stayed inside

3 The rocket launched

4 She smiled

5 They cheered loudly

SUBORDINATE CLAUSE

A because the team won the challenge.

B even though it was cold outside.

PERSUASIVE WRITING

I CAN PERSUADE MY READER!

Persuasive writing tries to convince the reader to think, feel or act in a certain way.
A strong persuasive text has a clear position, good reasons and compelling language.

THE PURPOSE

To persuade (convince) the reader to agree with your point of view or take action.

THE STRUCTURE

INTRODUCTION

Grab the reader's attention. State your topic and your position (your opinion).

BODY

Give reasons to support your position. Use evidence, examples and persuasive techniques.

COUNTERARGUMENT

Acknowledge the other side, then explain why your position is stronger.

CONCLUSION

Summarise your main points and end with a strong call to action.

PERSUASIVE TECHNIQUES

EMOTIONAL APPEALS – connect with the reader's feelings.

STRONG WORDS – use powerful and positive language.

FACTS AND EXAMPLES – support your ideas with evidence.

RHETORICAL QUESTIONS – ask questions that make the reader think.

CALL TO ACTION – tell the reader what you want them to do.

YOUR TASK

Choose ONE topic below. Plan your persuasive text in the organiser, then write your paragraph.

CHOOSE ONE TOPIC:

- ☐ Students should be allowed to bring phones to school.
 ☐ School uniform should be mandatory.
 ☐ We should have a four-day school week.

INTRODUCTION – What is your topic and position? How will you grab the reader's attention?

BODY REASON 1 – What is your first reason? Add an example or evidence.

BODY REASON 2 – What is your second reason? Add an example or evidence.

COUNTERARGUMENT – What might someone who disagrees say? Why is your position stronger?

CONCLUSION – Summarise your points. What action do you want the reader to take?

CHECKLIST

Have you...

- ☐ stated your position clearly?
 ☐ given strong reasons with examples?
 ☐ included persuasive techniques?
 ☐ addressed the other side of the argument?
 ☐ ended with a strong conclusion or call to action?

WRITING TEEL PARAGRAPHS FOR INFORMATIVE TEXTS

Informative texts present facts and information about a topic.

A TEEL paragraph helps you organise your ideas clearly.

TEEL stands for: Topic Sentence, Evidence, Explanation, Link.

T

TOPIC SENTENCE

Introduce the main idea of the paragraph.

- State the main point about the topic.
- It should answer part of the question or focus of your writing.

E

EVIDENCE

Provide facts, data or details from the text.

- Use specific information from the text.
- You can use numbers, examples, quotations or research.

E

EXPLANATION

Explain how your evidence supports your idea.

- Discuss what the evidence means.
- Show how it proves or supports your topic sentence.

L

LINK

Link back to the topic or lead to the next idea.

- Sum up your point.
- Connect to the next paragraph or the overall topic.

YOUR TURN!

Read the informational prompt below. Then plan and write a TEEL paragraph.

Prompt: Why are bees important to the environment?
