

RECOUNT WRITING

Structure and Organisation

A recount tells about something that already happened.

A recount has 3 main parts.

1 ORIENTATION

Tell who, what, where and when.

It tells the reader what your recount is about.

Example

Last Saturday, I went to the zoo with my family.

2 EVENTS

Tell what happened in order.

Write the events in the order they happened.

Example

- 1 First, we saw the lions.
- 2 Next, we fed the giraffes.
- 3 Then, we had lunch.
- 4 Finally, we watched the bird show.

3 REORIENTATION

Write your final thoughts or feelings.

It is the ending of your recount.

Example

I had a wonderful day at the zoo. I can't wait to go again! ❤️

Good recounts are:

- ✓ In order
- ✓ Use past tense
- ✓ Have details
- ✓ Make sense

RECOUNT WRITING

Language Features

Good language helps the reader know what happened. ♥

Recounts use special language. Here are the important ones!

Tell it in order!

1 WHO, WHERE and WHEN

These tell the reader who was there, where it happened and when.

Examples

- Last Saturday, I went to the park with my dad.
- My friends came too.

2 TIME WORDS

Time words help show the order things happened.

Examples

- First, we played on the swings.
- Next, we had a snack.
- Then, we played a game.
- After that, we went home.
- Finally, I was very tired!

3 ACTION VERBS

Action verbs (doing words) tell what someone did.

Examples

- I ran to the swings.
- We played a game.
- I ate my snack.
- We laughed a lot!

4 DESCRIBING WORDS

Describing words make your recount more interesting.

Examples

- The day was sunny and warm.
- The playground was big and fun.
- I had a yummy ice cream.

Use these language features to help your reader know what happened! ♥

RECOUNT WRITING

♥ Annotated Example ♥

Let's look at a recount and see how it is written!

ORIENTATION

Tells who, what, where and when. It introduces the recount. ♥

My Day at the Zoo ★

→ Last Saturday, I went to the zoo with my mum and my little brother. We went in the car.

EVENTS

Tells what happened in order. Time words help show the order. ♥

→ First, we saw the lions. They were sleeping in the sun.

→ Next, we saw the giraffes. They were so tall!

→ After that, we had some lunch.

→ Then, we watched the monkeys climb and swing.

→ Finally, we saw the seals. They splashed in the water.

TIME WORDS

Words like first, next, then, after that and finally help the reader know the order of events. ♥

REORIENTATION

The ending. It tells how you felt or a final thought about the day. ♥

→ I had a wonderful day at the zoo. I can't wait to go again! ♥

MORE LANGUAGE FEATURES

- Past tense verbs show the actions happened. (went, saw, had, watched)
- Describing words make it interesting. (little, tall, wonderful)
- Exclamation mark shows excitement! (!)

GOOD RECOUNTS...

- ✓ Tell what happened in order.
- ✓ Use time words.
- ✓ Use past tense verbs.
- ✓ Have a beginning and an ending.

